

Statement from Adam Lowry, method Co-founder, on the Release of the Joint UNICEF-WHO Diarrheal Disease Report and Global Handwashing Day

“Regular handwashing can dramatically reduce the chance of catching and spreading illnesses,” said Adam Lowry, co-founder of green cleaning products company, method. “Efforts like Global Handwashing Day help us to continue raising awareness that washing your hands with good old soap and water is a key factor in staying healthy.”